

curriculum vitae

Frank Kessler was born on December 14, 1961 in Ratingen and grew up in Berlin-Schöneberg. Even during his youth he became active in martial arts and completed a successful career in the disciplines Kung Fu, Taekwon-Do, Thai / Kickboxing and karate. He became a member of the Taekwon-Do national squad and fought in the Karate Bundesliga. During his competition time from 1980 to 1992 won Frank Kessler many national and international titles.

On 17.4.2004 he reached the title of Grandmaster 6th Dan in Taekwon-Do also acts as the only actor in Europe. He also served as a trainer and examiner. Furthermore, he is the association founder of the first Berlin Taekwon-Do Association, the today's TVBB.

Be as adventurous as his martial artist career developed Professional background. Frank Kessler learned electrical engineering, worked under other than flea market traders, operated a detective agency, worked in the British military and worked at TÜV Berlin in the Department of Environmental Technology. He has two completed ones Vocational training and sports study in second chance education.

"I was always looking for new career challenges. The experiences that I gained in these broad fields of activity and the associated encounters with the most diverse people, are in me my work as an actor a fund of which I always look at the role development can fall back again. "

For acting came Frank Kessler on martial arts. About that of him founded martial arts team Black Belt team became aware of him and used him as a stuntman. First engagements with television and the theater followed, until 1994 the decision with him, a professional acting education with Teelke Langhanke in Berlin to complete. In 1997 he successfully completed this with a final exam at the ZBF / ZAV in Berlin.

Since then he has worked as an actor for cinema, TV, theater and advertising. Additionally he is also used as a moderator and speaker. Furthermore, he worked in many successful productions.

- Men's pension
- Life is a building yard
- Murderous peace
- Cobra 11 - The Highway Police
- Robin Hood and me
- Crime scene
- The popes
- Three lives
- Henri 4
- Mila
- and much more

He has recently been working on the filming of the "The History of the Midwife" for the ARD, one Character role as Albrecht the Bear turned off. With actresses like Sir Peter Ustinov, John Goodman, David Wehnham, Gudrun Landgrebe, Heiner Lauterbach, Christine Neubauer, Michael Mendel and Till. Silently he stood together in front of the camera. He also worked with well-known Directors like: Detlef Buck, Wolfgang Becker, Sönke Wortmann, Jo Baier, Christian Petzold, Dominik Graf, Jerome Savary or Roland Suso Richter together.

In 2011 he had his debut at the Karl May Festival in Bad Segeberg "Winnetou and the Oil Prince, "where he was seen in the role of Mr. Buttler. Since 2003, he was an integral part as an actor (narrator) Raymond the Roadie of the ensemble for the hit musical "the Beatles - all you need is love". Since 2013, the work is on a world tour and was also with great success in English language listed. In 2009, Frank Kessler became a presenter for the Swiss telecommunications Company Sunrise ADSL seen worldwide. In 2011 he was seen in advertising as the Eon Mann (all media campaign), which aired in Germany and Europe has been.

In 2016 he was on the road for the RTL donation marathon. For one thing with the Ambassador Lars Riedel on a sailing challenge in Greece and later in the Studios at RTL in Cologne. For the sixth time in a row he was at the homeless Christmas party in Berlin, organized by Frank Zander, with us. At various charity events Frank stops Kessler with and supported the respective organization - most recently for the Rostock Tafel and Rostock 7.

He produced a TV format with Storyhouse Film GmbH under the title "Die Blood Brothers ", where he was not only one of the main characters, but also the Idea giver. Since 2016 he works with the renowned acting agency Actors Connection together and can be consulted in press inquiries from the Berlin press service. Frank Kessler has married privately and as a second pillar with the help of his wife Doreen Kessler opened a men's fashion business (men's heart) in the heart of Rostock.